NEW AUTUMN MILLINERY

CHARMING FASHIONS AT $4.00 TO $10.00

Bridgeport women are invited to see a really remarkable collection of hats that are here. Each one shows that it has been inspired by the more wearable of the Paris modes.

Each hat is a triumph of simplicity. How can we tell you about them? There is no elaboration of trimming to be described. It is all in the line. It is all in the line. Smart is an over-worked word, but we believe you will find that these inexpensive hats are really smart.

Wonderfully good looking, small and medium sized hats in exquisitely soft panne velvet, Lyons velvet.

Shaped sailors—not too large. Hats that turn up from the face. Flat sailors and mushroom sailors. Draped turbans.

Newness everywhere—the kind of newness that is individual. Especially chic are the hats at $3.00 to $6.00.

THIEVES ABANDON AUTO.

An automobile owned by James Donnelly, an employee of the Remington Arms company, who reported its loss Thursday night, was found yesterday on Lordship turnpike. It had been damaged and abandoned by thieves.

PREPAREDNESS

Preparedness should mark the resumption of school duties. There will be need of school bags and straps. Scholar's Companions, loose leaf notebooks, theme pads, composition books, crayons, pencils, pens, holders, erasers, etc. The P. O. News store, 11 Arcade, has a full line of these necessities at low prices. Higgen's Eternal Black Ink, and special value paper, "Giant Ten Tablets," in two sizes, are at this popular news store, where first quality is always in evidence.

During the session of Congress 17,800 bills and 642 resolutions were introduced in the House.

REILLY THINKS MAINE WILL GO FOR DEMOCRACY

Former Congressman, Campaigning in Pine Tree State, Foresees Victory.

(Portland, Me., Argus)

Former Congressman Thos. L. Reilly of Meriden, Conn., who was the father of considerable legislation of particular interest to postal employees, and who spoke at the Democratic meeting here last night, was given a token of the friendship of the Portland letter carriers, yesterday afternoon when there was sent to his room at the Falmouth hotel where he is registered, a mammoth bouquet of sweet peas, the accompanying card bearing this inscription:

"From Branch 306, N. A. L. C." Speaking of the Maine campaign, in which he has been taking part continuously for over three weeks, speaking in six counties, Mr. Reilly said to an Argus reporter:

"If the citizens of this state vote as they talk the Democrats will carry the state. If Maine was to vote for the President next Monday, President Wilson would carry the State by a big majority. The trend toward Wilson is stronger every day and unless something entirely unexpected occurs he will be stronger in November than he is in September. In Maine as well as in all other parts of the country."

"The Republicans in Maine are just as barren of a real live issue as the Republicans in the other parts of the country are."

"The campaign tour of Mr. Hughes has been admittedly a big disappointment; in fact a frost. The climate conditions in Maine at this time I am sure will be very congenial to him. The Democrats have given the State an excellent administration and there is no earthly reason why Governor Curtis should not be re-elected. If he is and the prospect is very bright, it is a 'good night' for Republicans in November; if he is not it simply means a little harder work on the part of the Democrats. The revival of Democracy in Maine is simply wonderful. From a solidly Republican State of a few years ago it now has put in at least the doubtful column. The progressive legislation that the Democrats have enacted will attract all really progressive Republicans."

"The prospect of Democratic success in Maine is very bright, unless all signs fail and the coming of Mr. Hughes into Maine does not dim the prospect."

Speaking of the bouquet sent to him by the Portland Carriers, Mr. Reilly said:

"It is just like those grateful fellows and in line with other evidences of friendship I have received from the postoffice boys since I have been in the State. What is the cause of it? When in Congress I introduced a bill and it was passed known as the eight-in-ten bill. It provided that the eight hours which carriers and clerks in first and second class office work should be completed within ten consecutive hours, instead of being spread out over a much larger period. There was other legislation too, and the result is that there have been very pleasant relations established between the carriers and clerks and myself. In speaking of that eight-in-ten bill reminds me that when it was in a critical stage in the Senate after having been passed by the House, the very best friend the bill had was your own Senator, Charles F. Johnson. He worked tirelessly for it and it was due to him that several doubtful votes were gained for the bill in the Senate. He was a true friend of the postal employees and no one knows it better than I do. He saved that bill in the Senate.

"Irrespective of party the clerks and carriers of Maine and the country owe him a deep debt of gratitude. I trust they will show their appreciation of what he did by making his vote unanimous, so far as they are concerned."

Mr. Reilly finishes the campaign in Rumford Saturday night. He spoke in Yarmouth last night.

STOCK STAMP TAX REMOVED BY BILL

New York, Sept. 8.—After exchanging telegrams with Washington, stock exchange authorities reached the conclusion today that under the war revenue bill signed by the President yesterday, sellers of stocks, beginning today, will be relieved of the federal stamp tax of 1/2 a hundredth of a dollar. Mark Esser, collector of the Third internal revenue district, announced today that the law requiring revenue stamps on securities and certain legal documents was repealed by the new revenue law and that beginning today no more stamps will be required of the articles covered by stamp tax schedules A and B of the emergency war act of October, 1914.

DISCLOSE NEW PLOT FOR AFRICAN REVOLT

Cape Town, Sept. 8.—Details of an attempt to foment another rebellion against the British in South Africa were disclosed at the trial yesterday at Bloemfontein of two nationalists, Van Der Merwe and Schreiner, on charges of high treason. The men are alleged to have conferred with a number of prominent Boers, including General De Wet, whom they told that large stores of rifles were available and that certain Boer Generals were willing to lead a revolt.

LIGHTNING HITS BARN

Wolcott, Conn., Sept. 8.—After a sharp flash of lightning during the storm of last night, fire broke out in the barn of John W. Norton. The horses and cows were saved by Mr. Norton and his employee but everything else in the structure was burned. One calf, which was about to be butchered for the market, was incinerated. The loss was $3,000, with partial insurance.

HUGHES ENDS MAINE TRIP.

Bangor, Me., Sept. 8.—Charles E. Hughes left Bangor early today for his last day of campaigning in Maine, the most strenuous he has had since leaving Bridgeport, N. Y., in August. The nominee expected to devote every minute possible today to outlining to voters and asking support not only for himself but for the Republican candidates for the House and Senate as well.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR IN REGALIA MARCH AWAY FOR OUTING

Annual Field Day of Commanderies of This Vicinity Takes Place at Momauguin.

With banners and plumes waving in the sunlight the members of Hamilton commandery, No. 5, Knights Templar, marched away today for their field day and outing at Momauguin, Cossy Beach. The Knights assembled at the Masonic Temple at 10 o'clock today and under command of Eminent Commander John J. Fisher and Captain-General George E. Beers marched to the railroad station where at 10:15 they took a special train for New Haven. The Wheeler & Wilson band played for them.

Sergeant Ramsey and a detail of eight policemen led the line. The band played the colors into line in front of the Temple and then the line of march was taken up, State street to Main street, to Golden Hill street, to the railroad station.

In New Haven the commandery was met by New Haven and St. Elmo commanderies with the Foot Guard band and the Meriden Military band. The Knights Templar marched to the Green where trolley cars were taken to the beach. There clam chowder was served and there was a review by A. W. Mattoon of New Haven, grand commander, and his staff. There was a baseball game and other field sports. At 4:30 the party enjoyed a shore dinner at the Momauguin house. The return will be made at 6 o'clock, the commandery parading to the Temple.

THE FINEST HOME-SITES

Within 5c trolley ride from Bridgeport overlooking Long Island Sound and every inch of this big and prosperous city.

Will you build a home on land which will increase in value. Will you have a home in a section of the city which will always be residential? Wise home buyers seek the northern portion of the city. Manufacturers seek tide-water and the railroad. North Main street values have quadrupled in five years. Others have made 150 per cent. on their investment. If you will likewise profit you must buy just beyond. Buy in the section toward which homes are moving, away from the noises and dirt where you can look down upon the industrial section of the city. Theodore Roosevelt advises men of moderate means to invest in real estate in a growing community, if they would have a competence in their old age.
